

Test Case: Registering a New Player Account
Test Case ID: TC-101
Test Suites Player Registration
Priority: High
Hardware Required: Computer (Desktop, Laptop, Personal Computer), Wifi Connector
Software Required: Operating System (Windows, OSX, Linux) , Internet Browser (Google Chrome, Microsoft Edge, Mozilla Firefox)
Duration: 1-2 minutes
Effort: 2-2.5 minutes
Setup: User must have a internet browser open with a connection and navigate to psip.com
Teardown: User clicks "Back to Home Page" button to go back to the home screen
Steps	Description of Step	Expected Result	Actual Result
1	The home screen of psip.com loads	The home screen should display with empty fields for the email, username, and password
2	On the login page, user clicks "Create a new player account" link	User should be taken to the registration page when the link of clicked
3	On the registration page, user enters their email in the email field	The user should be able to enter an email in the email field
4	On the registration page, user enters their username in the username field	The user should be able to enter a username in the username field
5	A green check appears on the screen to verify that the username meets the requirements	The username should be validated by the system and the green checkmark should appear next to the username field
6	On the registration page, user enters their password in the password field	The user should be able to enter a password in the password field
7	A green check appears on the screen to verify that the username meets the requirements	The username should be validated by the system and the green checkmark should appear next to the username field
8	User clicks "Register" button to register the account	The system should load the screen where it informs the user that their account is ready to use
9	The page informs the user that their account has been verified and is ready to use	The screen should display the message that the account has been verified and the system should present the option to go back to the home screen
Test Logs
Date	Execution Summary	Status	Bug ID	System Configuration ID	Tester	Effort	Duration